

Pushing the boundaries of wireless video conferencing

with AVer and ClickShare Conference

AVer and ClickShare Conference are your ideal partners for any collaborative hybrid meeting space. Unite in-room and remote teammates with intuitive tools and optimize communication and collaboration. Our simple, integrated solutions push the boundaries of hybrid meetings and are suitable for every meeting room, from huddle space to boardroom. Easy to set up, easy to use.

Think hybrid, choose collaboration

AVer's USB video conferencing products offer premium video that is vivid and crystal clear, with audio quality that makes you forget not everyone is in the same room. Cutting edge AI technology like AVer's SmartFraming, which automatically puts everyone in the meeting into frame and shifts focus to follow the presenter, endorses effortless meetings and presentations.

ClickShare Conference completes your meeting room set-up, by accommodating perfectly for your BYOM (Bring Your Own Meeting) needs. Enter the meeting room, connect to AVer's cameras and soundbars. You're only one click away from starting a hybrid video conference from your own device, with your preferred conferencing platform (MS Teams, Zoom...). Simple, easy, wireless.
